ABOUT ME

Always curious and endlessly outgoing, dedicated and open-minded. I've been in the field of marketing for over a decade. I have a knack for connecting with people and adapting to change effortlessly. I'm a firm believer in lifelong learning and advocate for shifting brand communication from B2C/B2B to H2H (Human to Human or Heart to Heart). I love to make smart pretty and pretty smart. Adore creating the art of storytelling in a way that makes people want to be a part of the story. Meeting remarkable individuals with captivating life stories brings me immense joy. Forever wanderlust and eternally in love with the planet Earth.
